UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORKX
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	APPLICATION AND ORDER
- against -	OF EXCLUDABLE DELAY
DOUGLASS MACKEY,	Docket no. 21-CR-80 (NGG)
Defendant.
The United States of America and the defendant DO time period from February 22, 2021 to March 29, 2021 be exceeded.
□ an information or indictment must be filed,□ trial of the charges against the defendant must be filed,
The parties seek the foregoing exclusion of time in order because	ause
they are engaged in plea negotiations, which case without trial, and they require an exclusion of time in ord that they would not, despite their diligence, have reasonable oximes they need additional time to investigate and	prepare for trial due to the complexity of the case,
\Box other:
The defendant states that he has been fully advised be Amendment to the Constitution; the Speedy Trial Act of 1974 Court adopted pursuant to that Act; and Rule 50(b) of the Fed understands that he has a right to be tried before a jury within Docusigned by:	4, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-74; the plan and rules of this deral Rules of Criminal Procedure. The defendant a specified time not counting periods excluded. DocuSigned by:
Douglass Mackey	Erik D. Paulsen
DOWSLASS MACKEY	Erik D. Paulsen or Nathan Reilly, for Acting U.S.
DocuSigned by: Tor Ekuland Tor Ekeland, Counsel for Defendant	Attorney, E.D.N.Y.
The joint application of the United States of proceeding on the date below, the time period from February computing the time within which \square an information or indicts Court finds that this exclusion of time serves the ends of justi defendant in a speedy trial for the reasons discussed on the re	ment must be filed or \boxtimes trial must commence. The ce and outweighs the interests of the public and the given the reasonable likelihood that ongoin case without trial, the exclusion of time will allow all counsel risk that they would be denied the reasonable time necessary the exercise of due diligence.
★ they need additional time to investigate and the control of the contro	prepare for trial due to the complexity of the case,
other:
SO ORDERED. Dated: Brooklyn, New York February, 2021	THE HONORABLE SANKET J. BULSARA

THE HONORABLE SANKET J. BULSARA United States Magistrate Judge